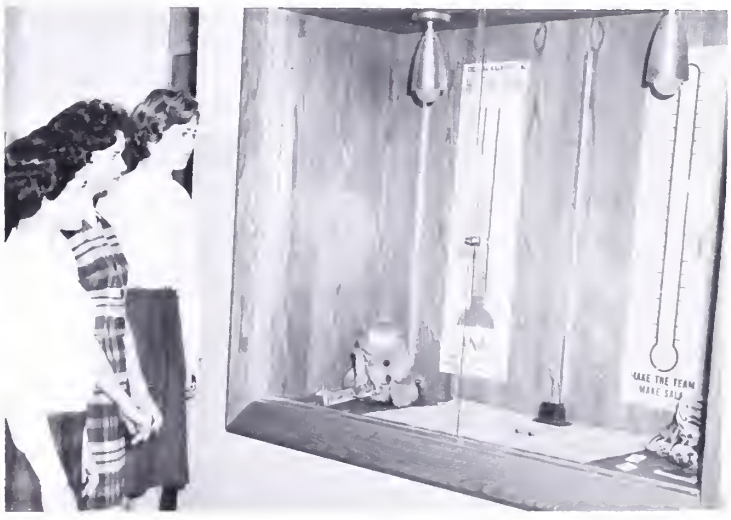
SENIOR CLASS OF 1963



CLASS COLORS:
Red and White
FLOWER:
Red Rose
MOTTO:
"We seek the higher things."

The 1963 graduating class has the distinction of being the first class to graduate from Chilhowie High School under the five-year, twelve-grade system.

For two years class members worked industriously selling magazines to make enough money to add Richmond, Williamsburg, Jamestown, and Yorktown to the annual Senior trip to Washington, D. C.

Shown at left admiring magazine salesmanship incentives in the trophy case are high "salesmen" from the two Senior homerooms: Donna Martin, Texie Osborne, and Porter Farmer.
